Effective Leadership in Healthcare Workforce: Developing and Inspiring Your Team

Effective leadership is crucial in healthcare organizations, where the quality of care provided to patients is directly linked to the performance and well-being of the workforce. Developing and inspiring your team is a critical component of effective leadership, as it can motivate employees to perform at their best and contribute to the overall success of the organization.

Breakout A: 2:45PM – 3:45PM

Healthcare Workforce Education and Training: Best Practices and Emerging Approaches

Healthcare workforce education and training play a crucial role in ensuring high-quality care and improving patient outcomes. Best practices and emerging approaches include simulation-based training, inter professional education, competency-based education, personalized learning, technology-enabled learning, experiential learning, and continuous professional development. By adopting these approaches, healthcare organizations can support the ongoing professional development of their workforce and ensure that they have the knowledge and skills to deliver excellent care.

Breakout B: 2:45PM – 3:45PM

Recruitment, Retention and Reward Strategies for Healthcare Workforce

This panel will discuss recruitment, retention, and reward strategies and the cost associated with these strategies. Recruitment, retention, and reward strategies are crucial in healthcare to ensure that healthcare professionals are motivated, engaged, and committed to delivering high-quality care to patients.

Closing 4:00PM – 5:30PM (ACHE 1.5)

Emerging Trends and Innovations in Healthcare Workforce Management

There are several emerging trends and innovations in healthcare workforce management that are transforming the way healthcare organizations recruit, train, and manage their staff. Some of these include artificial intelligence and machine learning, telehealth, virtual and augmented reality, on-demand staffing, and data-driven decision making. These trends and innovations are all intended to keep the pipeline for healthcare practitioners flowing at a rate that meets the forecast demand.
